UNIVERSITY OF COLOMBO
REVIEW

Journal of the University of Colombo
Sri Lanka

New Series Vol. 2 No 2 2010

(a bi-annual publication)

EDITOR'S NOTE

The University of Colombo Review is a multi disciplinary journal which has as its aim that of advancing academic research and creating a forum for policy debate in the University of Colombo. Its aims at bringing out the original thinking of scientists, social scientists, lawyers, educationists, and those in management. The journal is committed to an editorial policy of peer reviewing with a view to maintaining high scholarly standards.

The University of Colombo, is positioned as a leading Higher Educational Institution in the country. It consists of seven Faculties. There are also four Institutes and one school affiliated to the University.

The University of Colombo Review is a successor to the University of Ceylon Review which was published in Peradeniya from 1952 to 1957. It was subsequently published as the University of Colombo Review in the 1980's. It is now published as a new series of the same journal.

The Editorial Board wishes to thank the Vice Chancellor, the Registrar and the Bursar for their support and also wishes to thank the Deans and Heads of the Departments. A special thank you to the Academic and Publications branch and the Assistant Registrar. Finally our thanks to the academic contributors.
